* The Bible does not give any place names but I have determined that Thomas Curtis was born in Westerly, Washington County, R.I. He served in the revolution, enlisting in April 1779 from Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., NY. He served again for 4 months in 1781. The pension list of 1840 lists him as residing with Jeremiah Curtis, a son, in Stockton, Chautauqua Co., NY. He died in the town of Stockton and was buried in a now unmarked grave in an abandoned cemetery, probably on what was then Curtis family property.

* A history of Cherry Creek published in 1900 gives the following additional information on the Curtis family:

One of the early settlers of Cherry Creek was Stephen L. Curtis, who purchased a farm of 50 acres from the Holland Land Company in 1834. He had two sons, Henry L. and John H. Curtis. John H. Curtis was born in July 1838; he married Emma Parsons in March 1860.

* Children- Mrs. Lemuel P. Wood and Edgar W. Curtis, born at Cherry Creek 10 Nov. 1870.

* Edgar W. Curtis married Grace E. Delamater of Allegany, N.Y. They reside in Cherry Creek at this time.(1900)"

He (Abraham) belonged, presumptively, to one of the early families from RI that settled in Western New York, at the beginning of the 19th century."

GIDEON SALISBURY OF CENTRAL NEW YORK

GIDEON, b. 1732; JOSEPT, b. 1777

The following information concerning Gideon was taken from a discussion of the lineage of Seymour Lowman of Elmira,NY, in The Salisburian, pp. 155-156, v. 2.

"Sally Salisbury, who was the dtr of Gideon Salisbury and the granddtr of Joseph Salisbury, both of whom were natives of Little Compton, RI, was born on 20 Aug. 1777, was married to Wilkes Jenkins, and died on 29 Dec. 1849. Gideon Salisbury, her father, was born in 1732 and married Punnlea Shaw in 1757. He moved to Dutchess County, NY state, then to Wilkes-Barre, PA, and finally settled in Central New York. He was a soldier of the Rev., and served with the NY levies. Joseph Salisbury, father of Gideon and grandfather of Sally, was born in 1707, was married in 1731 and lived in Little Compton, RI. Joseph Salisbury, son of Gideon and brother of Sally, was born in 1769, and moving from Luzerne County, PA, settled in Western NY, where he reared a family of ten children and left many descendants in Orleans county."

A discussion of Joseph, b. 1769, who settled in Western New York, will be found on pp. 141-144, v. 1, The Salisburian.

The Census Index for Ontario County, New York, 1800, showed the following Salisburys:

Gideon	452	0 1 2 0 1	3 1 0 0 1 - 0 0

William	424	0 1 0 2 0	2 1 0 1 0 - 0 0

From information gathered from The Salisburian, I believe that the following assumptions are likely to be correct. Salisburys in Niagara County 1810 and 1820, Erie County 1830 to 1850, and Chautauqua County 1810 to 1850 have been considered.

SALISBURYS IN THE WESTERN NEW YORK COUNTIES OF ONTARIO, NIAGARA, CHAUTAUQUA, AND ERIE, 1800-1850

The Salisburys from Ontario County, 1800, are listed below as the area of the counties of Niagara and Erie were included in the area covered by Ontario County in 1800. JAMES SALISBURY, BORN JUNE 20, 1785, SOMEWHERE IN VERMONT

Some Facts and Some Guesses About My Great Great Grandfather

Betty Jean Zoodsma Leach

Reason for Search: To determine the names of James' parents
To learn the names of his siblings
To complete the family history of my Salisbury line

JAMES SALISBURY, born 20 June 1785, Vermont, married SUSAN CURTIS, born 1794, New York, died 1838, age 44, buried Springfield Cemetery, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. They married in 1810 in New York. They reportedly had ten (10) children. The following five children have been confirmed: DANIEL, my great grandfather, born ca 1814, New York or Pennsylvania; Henry; Eliza, wife of George A. Hopkins; Susan Fish; and Aaron C., born 1832, Pennsylvania, married 1865, Erie Co., Pennsylvania, Sarah Ann Wheeler, sister of my great grandmother, MARY EMELINE WHEELER, who married DANIEL SALISBURY about 1840, probably in Erie Co., Pennsylvania. Circumstantial evidence suggest that Caleb C., Albert, and Anna, wife of Azariah Smith, were also children of James and Susan.

DANIEL and MARY EMELINE WHEELER SALISBURY had the following children: James C., born 1842; Miles Wheeler, born 1843; John A., born 1845; Emma L., born 1848; Laura A., born 1850; ELLA JANE, my grandmother, born 1854, and Lillie, born 1861. Their children with the exception of Lillie were born in Pennsylvania. DANIEL and MARY lived in Erie Co., Pennsylvania, at the time of the 1850 census. However, they moved to Dekorra, Columbia Co., Wisconsin, between 1850 and 1860 as they were enumerated in Columbia Co., in 1860. At that time, Daniel's brother Henry was living with them. In 1870, they were living in Westport, Dane Co., Wisconsin. Mary died in 1878 at age 59; Daniel, in 1881. They are buried with their daughter, Lillie, in the Vienna-Watzke Cemetery, Waunakee, Dane Co., Wisconsin.

ELLA JANE, my grandmother, born 1854, moved to South Dakota with some members of her family after the death of their father in 1881. In 1883, she married NIELS NICOLAI CHRISTENSEN, my grandfather, who was born in Arup, Thisted Co., Denmark. Their children were Leslie Salisbury, born 1884; Raymond Charles, born 1887; Carl Reginald, born 1890; Lawrence Daniel, born 1892; and DOROTHY RUTH, my mother, born 1896. ELLA JANE died in 1903, and she is buried with her husband in the Ashton Cemetery, Ashton, Spink Co., South Dakota. Over time, my grandfather's name was spelled as follows: Nels (Nelson) Nicholas Christenson.

DOROTHY RUTH CHRISTENSON, my mother, married in 1921, Spink Co., South Dakota. She married CLAUS SEETZE ZOODSMA, born 1889, in Ashton, South Dakota. Claus and Dorothy had the following three children: Myron, born 1922, died 1923; BETTY JEAN (me), born 1925; and Donald Raymond, born 1926.

On separate pages, I have made some intuitive guesses about my ancestors (specifically James and Susan) which are based on census records, land records, wills, and other papers.

I believe that evidence indicates a tie between my ancestor, James, and Aaron Salisbury of Evans, Erie Co., New York. The following "coincidences" occurred in the lives of these two men: James named a son, Aaron; Aaron probably named a son, James; both men had a daughter, Eliza; and Holland Land Company records indicate that both men bought property in Western New York, in Section 00, Township 08, Range 09. Aaron made purchases in 1809, 1810, 1812, 1821, & 1814; James, August, 1811.

I believe that James, born June, 1785, Vermont, was a brother of Aaron Salisbury, born 1786, Vermont. Aaron, one of the first settlers in the Western New York area of Evans, married Ann Roat about 1825. The Evans Town Historian advised that Aaron's mother was Mercy Salisbury.

I, also, believe that James was a brother of Hannah Curtis, wife of Asa Curtis. The Curtises lived in Evans in 1830; but by 1840, they lived in Porter Township, Cass Co., Michigan. Hannah and Asa's children were "Daniel" David, Nelson, Salisbury, and Orange D. Curtis.

I feel, too, that Mercy Albert, born ca 1794, New York, was possibly a sister of James Salisbury. Mercy, the wife of John Albert, lived in Springfield, Erie Co., Pennsylvania, in 1850. Aaron Salisbury, age 18, born ca 1832, was enumerated with them in 1850. Aaron, the son of James and Susan, was born in 1832; and he would have been six (6) years old at the time of his mother's death.

In 1850, Caleb C. Salisbury, born about 1824, and Henry, born about 1826, were listed with Azariah Smith and his wife, Anna E. Smith, born about 1820. I suspect that Anna was a sister of Caleb and Henry, who were undoubtedly sons of James and Susan. Deed records tie Caleb C. and Henry Salisbury to James.

Census Information

The 1810 census index for Niagara County, New York, shows a J. Salisbury and an A. Salsbury on page 129 of the census. Both J. and A. Salisbury were 16-26 years of age. A male aged 10-16 was listed with A. Salsbury.

On the 1820 census, a James Salisbury, born between 1775 and 1794, was living in Hamburgh, New York. He had 1 male under 10, and 2 females under 10 plus a female born between 1775 and 1794 listed with him. The ages of the adults fit James and Susan's ages.

The 1820 census showed the following: Mary Salisbury, born before 1775, lived in Eden, Niagara Co., New York. Two males, one 10-16; and the other, 26-45, were enumerated with her. The male, age 26-45, could have been Aaron Salisbury as he married ca 1825. (I am assuming that Mercy Salisbury could have been placed on the census as Mary.) There was no separate listing in the index for Aaron Salisbury in 1820.

The 1820 census showed the following Curtises in Niagara County. They were Asa Curtis, Hamburgh; Salmon, Hamburgh; Benjamin, Eden; and Caleb, Eden. Asa, Salmon, Benjamin, and Caleb were all born between 1775 and 1794.

I believe that evidence indicates a tie between my ancestor, James, and Aaron Salisbury of Evans, Erie Co., New York. The following "coincidences" occurred in the lives of these two men: James named a son, Aaron; Aaron probably named a son, James; both men had a daughter, Mary; and Holland Land Company records indicate that both men bought property in western New York, in Section 20, Township 08, Range 09. Aaron made purchases in 1809, 1810, 1812, 1821, & 1814; James, August, 1811.

I believe that James, born June, 1783, Vermont, was a brother of Aaron Salisbury, born 1786, Vermont. Aaron, one of the first settlers in the Western New York area of Evans, married Sue_____ about 1825. The Evans Town Historian advised that Aaron's mother was Mercy Salisbury.

I, also, believe that James was a brother of Reuben Curtis, wife of Asa Curtis. The Curtises lived in Evans in 1830; but by 1840, they lived in Porter Township, Cass Co., Michigan. Reuben and Asa's children were "Reuben", David, Nelson, Salisbury, and Orsamus D. Curtis.

I feel, too, that Mercy Albert, born ca 1794, New York, was possibly a sister of James Salisbury. Mercy, the wife of John Albert, lived in Springfield, Erie Co., Pennsylvania, in 1850. Aaron Salisbury, age 13, born ca 1837, was enumerated with them in 1850. Aaron, the son of James and Susan, was born in 1832; and he would have been six (6) years old at the time of his mother's death.

In 1850, Caleb G. Salisbury, born about 1824, and Henry, born about 1826, were listed with Azelia Smith and his wife, Anna E. Smith, born about 1830. I suspect that Anna was a sister of Caleb and Henry, who were undoubtedly sons of James and Susan. Deed records file Caleb G. and Henry Salisbury to James.

Census Interpretation

The 1810 census index for Niagara County, New York, shows a J. Salisbury and an A. Salisbury on page 139 of the census. Both J. and A. Salisbury were 16-26 years of age. A male aged 10-16 was listed with A. Salisbury.

On the 1820 census, a James Salisbury, born between 1778 and 1794, was living in Dansville, New York. He had 1 male under 10, and 2 females under 10 plus a female born between 1778 and 1794 listed with him. The ages of the adults fit James and Susan's ages.

The 1830 census showed the following: Mercy Salisbury, born before 1778, lived in Eden, Niagara Co., New York. Two males, one 10-15; and the other, 20-45, were enumerated with her. The male, age 20-45, could have been Aaron Salisbury as he married ca 1825. (I am assuming that Mercy Salisbury could have been placed on the census as Mary.) There was no separate listing in the index for Aaron Salisbury in 1830.

The 1830 census showed the following Curtises in Niagara County. They were Asa Curtis, Hamburgh Station, Hamburgh; Benjamin, Eden; and Caleb, Eden. Asa, Reuben, Benjamin, and Caleb were all born between 1778 and 1794.

At the time of the 1830 census, Asa Curtis lived in Evans, Erie Co., New York. The ages of members of his household were as follows: Males; 1 under 5; 1, 5 to 10; 1, 10 to 15; 1, 15 to 20; 1, 40 to 50; Females; 1, 10 to 15; and 1, 40 to 50.

In 1830, James Salisbury was living in Mina, Chautauqua Co., New York. The members of his household were as follows: Males; 2 under 5; 2, 5 to 10; 1, 15 to 20 (Daniel?); 1, 40 to 50; Females 1, 10 to 15; 1, 15 to 20; 1, 30 to 40. In addition, two Curtis families of Joseph and Sylvester lived in Mina, page 396, in 1830.

On the 1840 census, James Salsbury, age 50 to 60, was enumerated in Fairview Township, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. His first wife, Susan died in 1838, at age 44. The census showed the following: Males; 2, 5 to 10; 1, 10 to 15; Females; 1, 40 to 50.

In 1843, James and Sarah, his wife, lived in Alden, Erie Co., New York. A deed found in Erie Co., Pennsylvania, verified his town of residence in 1843. I assume that James remarried after the death of his wife, Susan.

On the 1850 census, a James Salisbury, age 65, born Vermont, was listed with Daniel Curtis and his wife, Abigail Easton Curtis, in Porter Township, Cass Co., Michigan. No wife was listed with James at that time. I believe that "Daniel" David Curtis was a nephew of James Salisbury.

In 1851, land records show that James Salisbury returned to Erie Co., Pennsylvania; but I have no record of him after that time. Cemetery records showed no record of his grave in Erie Co., Pennsylvania.

On the 1850 census, a Sanford Salisbury, age 52, born New York, was enumerated in Girard Township, Erie Co., Pennsylvania. Sanford was in Girard Township in 1840 and 1860, but cemetery records did not show a Sanford or a Sarah (Sally). I wonder if Sanford was related in some way to my ancestor, James.

And, finally, I still feel that there is a strong possibility that the James Salisbury who purchased property in Shaftsbury, Bennington Co., Vermont, in 1779 and sold property in 1792, was related to James and/or Aaron Salisbury. He may have been their father. An oath on a deed in 1794 verified that that James Salisbury was out-of-state.

I feel that very little research has been done on my Salisbury line. I have seen and studied most of the family histories that have been done on the Salisburys in America, but I have not been able to fit my ancestor anywhere.

In February, 1993, we plan to do on-site research in Erie Co., New York, and I hope to find some clues to help solve my Salisbury/Curtis problems.

CUNDY, SAMUEL, Marblehead 1674.

CUNLIFF, CUNLITH, or CUNDLIEF, HENRY, Dorchester, freem. 1644, when the rec. has Cunlithe or Gunlithe as Mr. Paige reads it; by w. Susanna had Susanna, b. 15 Mar. 1645; rem. with early sett. 1659, to Northampton, was one of the found. of the ch. 18 June 1661, there d. 14 Sept. 1673. His wid. d. 19 Nov. 1675. His only ch. CURNEY, or CORNEY, JOHN, Gloucester, m. 18 Nov. 1670, Abigail Skilling, perhaps d. of Thomas, had Elisha, b. 25 Sept. 1672; Abigail, 8 Feb. 1676; John, 27 Sept. 1678, d. in few days, and he d. 1722. My suspic. is strong, that this name is mistak. for Carney or Gurney.

CURRIER, RICHARD, Salisbury 1640, by w. Ann had Hannah, b. 8 July 1643; Thomas, 8 Mar. 1646; and, earlier, prob. Sarah, wh. m. 23 June 1659, Samuel Fogg of Hampton; and he d. 17 May 1689. Martha, of Andover, was one of the victims of the baneful superstit. a. witchcraft, execut. 19 Aug. 1692, at the same time with Rev. George Burrows, suffer. by the same horrid delus. Yet her punishm. was, to some extent, less than his, as the greater culprit met the maledict. of Cotton Mather, the ch. inquisit. THOMAS, Amesbury, perhaps s. of Richard, freem. 1690.

Abell; had Samuel, b. 26 Apr. 1649; Nathaniel, 15 July 1651; rem. to Northampton, and d. 30 Nov. 1661, leav. wid. Eliz. (wh. m. 22 June 1662, Richard Weller, from Windsor), and these s. of wh. The sixth Isaac in regular success. now enjoys his inherit. of the same est. giv. to first Isaac by his f. for maintain. f. and mo. ISRAEL, Stratford 1669, s. of that lubricous John of the same (suppos. to have been found as s. of William of Roxbury), by w. Rebecca had Israel, b. 20 May 1668; John, Oct. 1670; Stephen, 24 Aug. 1673; Peter; Hannah; and Rebecca; and he d. Oct. 1704, as in Cothren is set forth. JOHN, Dover, adm. an inhab. 24 Apr. 1656, but, perhaps, as no more is heard of him there, he rem. to Roxbury. JOHN, Stratford 1650–85. Trumbull, I. 105, says he came from Roxbury; and he had John, b. Oct. 1642. But all of it seems erron. He was really s. of the wid. C.; had, says the preposter. tradit. d. Eliz. old eno. to m. John, the eldest s. of Gov. Thomas Welles, bear. to him sev. ch. and, next, m. 19 Mar. 1663, John Wilcockson. Almost every word of Trumbull, and of Cothren, borro. from T. in relat. to the Roxbury deriv. of John, and William, is wrong; and must have been a tradit. of the mid. of the eighteenth century. Yet a true John of S. by w. Eliz. wh. d. as Cothren tells, 1682, beside that John of 1642, had Israel, Apr. 1644; Eliz. May 1647 (wh. by the tradit. bec. w. of John Welles, eldest s. of the Gov. bore him one s. in 1648, the yr. aft. her own b. and tw. 1651); Thomas, Jan. 1649; Joseph, Nov. 1650; Benjamin, Sept. 1652; and Hannah, Feb. 1654 or 5. None of this must be reject. but perhaps when Cothren adds, that he d. 6 Dec. 1707, aged 96 yrs. and that his wid. Margaret d. 1714, acquiesc. of our judgm. may not be so easy. JOHN, Roxbury 1660, s. of William, m. 26 Dec. 1661, Rebecca, d. of late Thomas Wheeler. He may have been of Dover 1656. JOHN, Scituate, s. of Richard, m. 1678, Miriam, d. of William Brooks, had Mercy, b. 1679; Hannah, 1681; and William, 15 Sept. 1683. JOHN, Topsfield, m. 4 Dec. 1672, Sarah Locke, freem. 1690. Obedience, d. of John Holland of Dorchester, had Sarah, b. 24 Aug. 1659, d. young; Philip, 8 Sept. 1660; Abigail, 14 Nov. 1662, d. young; Joseph, 14 Mar. 1665; Abigail, again, 10 Apr. 1667; Josiah, 11 Mar. 1669; Holland, 1671; William, 2 Feb. 1675; and Abiel, posthum. 2 Mar. 1676. He was a lieut. k. by the Ind. in Philip's war, 9 Nov. 1675, near Mendham. See Hubbard, 45. His wid. pray. next yr. for assist. to her and seven ch. but m. 11 Feb. 1678, Benjamin Gamlin of R. and had more ch. RICHARD, Dorchester 1642, freem. 1647, by w. Eliz. had Eliz. b. 17 July 1643. RICHARD, Marblehead 1648, rem. to Scituate, m. 1649, Ann, d. of John Hallet, had Ann, b. 1649; Eliz. 1651; John, 1 Dec. 1653; Mary, 1655; Martha, 1657; Thomas, 18 Mar. 1659; Deborah, 1661, and Sarah, 1663; and he d.

1693. His will, of 1692, provides for sec. w. Lydia, the two s. and ds. Ann; Eliz. Brooks, w. of Nathaniel; Mary Badcocke; and Martha Clark, w. of Thomas. So it is to be infer. that the youngest two ds. d. bef. their f. SAMUEL, Northampton 1668. SAMUEL, Scituate, s. of Thomas, by w. Eliz. had Eliz. b. 1694; Samuel, 1695; Benjamin, 1699; and Abigail, 1703. With spell. of Courteous he is seen sw. alleg. to Mass. 1652 in Col. Rec. IV. pt. I. 129. THOMAS, Scituate, s. of Richard, m. 1694, Mary, d. of William Cook, had Deborah, b. 1697; Ruth, 1699; Mary, 1701; Thomas, 5 Mar. 1704; and Ruth, 1711. WILLIAM, Roxbury 1632, came in the Lion, arr. at Boston 16 Sept. with w. Sarah, and ch. Thomas, Mary, John, and Philip; freem. 4 Mar. 1633, first nam. in the list of that day; had here, says Ellis, Hannah; Eliz.; and Isaac, b. 22 July 1641. His eldest s. William, wh. came in 1631, perhaps with Eliot in the Lion, was "a hopeful scholar, but God took him in 1634," says the ch. rec. Thomas, d. 26 June 1650, of "long and tedious consumpt." says the ch. rec. unm. it is presum. His d. Hannah m. 25 Aug. 1651, William Geary; and Eliz. m. 14 Dec. 1659, John Newell. C. that came so (I presume), from Eng. with John and this s. by Trumbull, I. 105, said to have come from Roxbury, erron. as must be thot. for his obs. on John. But Cothren shows, that he of S. (wh. may never have seen R.), was one of the grantees of Woodbury in 1672, tho. he rem. not from S. but there d. 21 Dec. 1702, in his will of six days preced. nam. his ch. Sarah, wh. was b. His sec. w. was Sarah, wid. of William Goodrich, but all the ch. were by first w. whose name is not seen. Both h. and w. d. 1702, as is said. WILLIAM, Scituate 1643, br. of Richard, had Joseph, b. 1664; Benjamin, 1666; William, 1668; John, 1670; Miriam, 1673; Mehitable, 1675; Stephen, 1677; Sarah, ZACCHEUS, Salem, came in the James from Southampton, 1635, was from Downton, in Wiltsh. had gr. of ld. 1646, but prob. rem. to Gloucester, there by w. Joan had Mary, b. 12 May 1659. ZECHARIAH, Stratford 1685, s. of William of the same, may have been one of Gallop's comp. 1690. Of this name, ten had been gr. at Harv. in 1834, and nineteen in other N. E. coll.

CURWIN, or CORWIN, * GEORGE, Salem 1638, came with w. Eliz. (wh. had been wid. of John White), and d. His w. whose fam. name was Herbert, it is said of Northampton, d. 15 Sept. 1668; and by sec. w. Eliz. Edward Lyde of Boston, and d. early. More light is want. as to Abigail's sec. h. than the Geneal. Reg. affords, as also for the m. of Samuel Andrews to ano. ch. of Curwin's w. JOHN, Southold, L. I. perhaps s. of Matthias, freem. of Conn. 1662. *JOHN, Salem, s. of George, freem. 1665, rep. 1679, d. 12 July 1683; m. May 1665, Margaret, d. of Gov. 1718. MATTHIAS, Southold, L. I. had been early at Ipswich, it is said. SAMUEL, Boston, d. 16 Nov. 1698. Oft. this name is writ. Corwin, sometimes Currin, to conform to sound. The Curwens were a very ancient fam. in Cumberland; and the name being nearly or quite, extinct, it was assum. two or three generat. since, by Mr. Christian of the Isle of Man, wh. was a mem. of Parl. of some distinct. 60 yrs. ago.

C. 1676; Theophilus, 29 May, bapt. 7 June 1657; and Matthew, 15 July 1660. His sec. w. was Eliz. wid. of John Thaxter, d. of Nicholas Jacob, m. 9 Mar. 1691, and she d. 1725, aged 93. He d. 3 Dec. 1700, hav. as third town clk. of H. render. says Lincoln, for many yrs. invalua. serv. to the mod. antiquary. I hope he rec. the names of his ds. if he had more than Deborah, m. 25 Sept. 1679, Henry Tarleton, and next, 31 Aug. 1686, Rev. Benjamin Woodbridge of Bristol. The will of C. of 11 Sept. 1693, writ. with admirab. precis. yet with much minuteness, fill. more than six close folio pages, is in our rec. XIV. 293. It provides for the recent w. five s. d. Deborah, and her h. Benjamin Woodbridge, and sis. Deborah, w. of Matthew Briggs. Daniel, the Hingham patriarch, it appears, that the est. of Jeremiah had descend. in part to that testat. so that prob. the Boston sailor had no ch. tho. he had bef. 11 Mar. 1662 m. Eliz. wid. of John Wilkie. JEREMIAH, Scituate, s. of first Daniel, had preach. at Haverhill, but was ord. at S. 27 May 1691, m. 1 June 1685, Hannah, d. of Thomas Loring of Hingham, had Hannah, b. 1687; Ignatius, 1689; Jeremiah, 1695; and Ezekiel, 28 Apr. 1698; and d. 22 Mar. 1706. His wid. m. 1706, John Barker, and his s. John m. the same yr. her d. Hannah. JEREMIAH, Scituate, br. of Caleb, m. 12 Apr. 1693, Judith Parmenter, perhaps rem. had a sec. w. and, contrary to the opin. of Deane, had a fam. but the particulars are not kn. to me. ‡*JOHN, Scituate, youngest

WILLIAM, JOHN AND THOMAS CURTIS.—I venture to offer some suggestions tending to show that William Curtis of Roxbury, Thomas Curtis of Wethersfield, and John, husband of Elizabeth Curtis of Stratford, were probably brothers.

William Curtis was baptized at Nazing, Co. Essex, November 12, 1592. He came to America in 1632 with his family, in the ship Lion. Thomas of Wethersfield was six years younger, having been born in 1598. It is a generally accepted fact that the husband of Elizabeth of Stratford was John. The late Stiles H. Curtis (N. E. Hist. and Gen. REGISTER, xliii. 392) identifies him with John Curtis, who married at Nazing, April 19, 1610, Elizabeth Hutchings, and who had children, John, bapt. Nov. 20, 1614–15, William, bapt. June 21, 1618, and Thomas, bapt. March 12, 1619–20. The names and dates of these five persons conform to those in the Stratford family.

Among the inhabitants of Roxbury we find between 1638 and 1643, John Corteis, owning land and having five persons in his family, but after that date no trace of any of these persons appears. The early settlers of New England kept fairly comprehensive and exact records of their family history, and it is hardly possible that John of Roxbury, his wife, and all his children should have disappeared without leaving some note behind, but we find no trace of them unless at Stratford.

Thomas Curtis, afterward of Wethersfield, may have been living at the same time in Roxbury, but being younger, and unmarried, his name does not appear; perhaps he was included in the record with some other family.

Among the early settlers of Wethersfield were Thomas Curtis and John Curtis, both of whose names appear in the land records, and whose residences are indicated on the map of that town given in Memorial History of Hartford County, I. 447.

Stratford was settled in 1639 by a colony from Wethersfield, among whom was the widow Elizabeth Curtis and her sons, John, William and Thomas, the last of whom is known only by the mention of his name in his mother's will.

It seems probable that John Curtis and Thomas Curtis left Roxbury some time after the year 1634, that they went to Wethersfield and acquired land there, that John was the husband of Elizabeth, that he had engaged to join the expedition to Stratford, and had disposed of his property preparatory to removal, that he died before the expedition started, but his plans having been carried so far that they could not well be abandoned, his widow, for herself and her children carried out the design her husband had formed. Apparently the ties that bound the family to Wethersfield were not wholly severed, for a few years later, William Curtis, grandson of Elizabeth, returned to that place to take as his wife the widow of John Goodrich.

When among the early settlers of a New England town we find two or more persons bearing the same family name, and about the same age, I think it safe to look for some relationship between them, and in the present case our search is encouraged by the fact that among these three families we find the names Thomas, John and Elizabeth, in all, while William and Joseph are also found in two of them. The repetition of a single name in two families is an unstable ground to build upon, but the probability of relationship increases with each additional name, not in arithmetical, but in geometrical progression.

Dr. J. Bradford Dresser, who has given much time to the study of the Curtis family, informs me that his ancestor, Henry Curtis, of Windsor, was a brother of Thomas of Wethersfield, but beyond the fact that they lived in neighboring towns I have found nothing to support this statement.

William, Thomas and John Curtis may have come to America in the Lion, although we find no record of the fact, which is not surprising, since of the 123 persons in that ship only about thirty have been traced. Thomas and John were younger than William, and Thomas was unmarried.

Richard Curtis of Dorchester, enumerated by Savage, was of another family. He with his son Isaac returned about 1679 to Wallingford, where he died September 17, 1681, aged 70, leaving an estate of £50, including money at interest in Dorchester. His son Isaac, born January 17, 1658, died July 15, 1712, married August 13, 1682, Sarah Ford. His descendants were in Waterbury, Farmington, Litchfield, etc.

The subjoined list of Curtis wills furnished to me by a correspondent, will interest some who may be disposed to search for Curtis families in England:

P.S.

After I sealed your letter, I remembered that I was going to tell you about a resident of the same nursing home that Hugh's mother is in. His name is and he has lived in the Poynette area for some years. Hugh doesn't know anything about his family except that when Hugh's parents were newly married in the 30s, they and the Worth Curtis' were friends. Evidently they had some kind of falling out.

You may want to pursue that line. I don't think there is any relationship between the Worth Curtises and us. Their address most likely would be Poynette or possibly Portage, Wisconsin. I'm guessing that Worth is 90 or near 90.

Hugh's mother would know, but she has had a stroke and can no longer communicate with us...

This is the Robert mentioned in the 1905 census. It appears that Robert named his daughter after his sister, Lileth.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR ORDER

We can only search for a record based on the information you provided in Blocks 3-18. The success and accuracy of our search is determined by the the information you provide. Often there are many files for veterans of the same or nearly the same name. If there are five or fewer files for men with the same name as the individual in whom you are interested, we will examine all the relevant files and compare their contents with the information that you have provided us. If the veteran's identity seems obvious, we will furnish you a copy of the file we think is the correct one.

If there are more than five files, we will not make a file-by file check to see if the information in the numerous files matches that provided for the veteran in whom you are interested. In such cases, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the files for you. We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee; however, many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries.

PLEASE NOTE: When you send more than one form at a time, each form is handled separately. Therefore, you may not receive all of your replies at the same time. Allow a minimum of 8-10 weeks for processing of your order. Please address inquiries about your order to the General Reference Branch at the address below. More information about the availability of records pertaining to military service or family histories may be found in our free genealogical information leaflets and forms. You may request these, as well as order additional copies of this form, by writing to:
